

Americas Next War (Classic Reprint)

Excerpt from Americas Next WarThe addresses to be found in this volume were delivered from time to time before patriotic organizations. Some of them have been printed in the local papers, and also in my book Patriotism, which is now out of print.The claims and the threats of Romanists, their demand and reception of moneys from the public treasury to be used for their private interests, are so well known, that we believe there is a demand for organized effort in defense of one country, one flag, and one language for all our people.We send this volume forth, hoping it may do something toward creating a purer devotion for the American home, school, and church.About the PublisherForgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
