

Life Is Precious: We Are Not Without Help

This book is a concise account of what we have been given to live a fulfilled, blessed and victorious life. In the stories contained in this book, the reader will be awakened to the help that is very much within reach. From realizing we have the power to make wealth to knowing when to simply hang in there, the author shows us we are not without help. This book is for anyone who has ever felt he or she needs help, or that he or she could use some help. It will help you reflect on your life and set you on a path of discovery. You will discover what you already have, what is within you, what is within reach, and relationships you need to establish, and choices you need to make today. It will help you in your quest and journey to being all you were created to be.

Your life is precious. So choose to be your very best. Your best days are ahead of you, not behind you. Help is closer than many think or can ever imagine. Learn life joys, and discover it all, in this book. Share it with your family members, neighbors, acquaintances, and friends far and near.
