

The Operation of the Initiative, Referendum, and Recall in Oregon (Classic Reprint)

Excerpt from The Operation of the Initiative, Referendum, and Recall in Oregon I J. N. Teal, Practical Workings of the Initiative and Referendum in Oregon, Cincinnati Conference for Good City Government, 1909, pp. 309, 310. Cf. Oregonian, Nov. 28, 1902, p. 6, col. I H. W. Scott, ibid., Oct. 16, 1907, p. II, col. 3. Although it was adopted by a majority of eleven to one, a great many people did not know what they were voting for. The friends of the measure had been working judiciously for it for years, had secured the endorsement of the newspapers, many of the leading men of the state, and had by shrewd management got possession of the political parties, to the extent, at least, that all candidates printed vote for Initiative and Referendum on all their election cards and bill posters and were all lined up to advocate the measure during election: Many did not know what they were voting for, simply following the rest. H. Denlinger, Arena, vol. 38, pp. 83-4 Such statements are repeated by Oregonians again and again, both in regard to the members of the legislature and the people, and are widely believed to be true.
